The legal basis for the collection and processing of your personal data

- For administration and programme delivery: that it is necessary to fulfil the membership agreement that you are going to enter or have entered with us
- For dealing with medical needs that you have given your explicit consent or in the child's vital interests
- In all other cases, that it is necessary for our legitimate interests which are to build a programme to encourage participation in cricket and does not prejudice or harm rights and freedoms of parents / guardians / adult players or the children that join the programme

Your right to withdraw consent

Where you have given your consent to any processing of personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. If you do, it will not affect the lawfulness of any processing for which we had consent prior to you withdrawing it.

Location of your personal data

The Club will keep your personal data within the European Economic Area.

How long we will keep your personal data

- We will not retain your personal data for longer than is reasonable and necessary for the purposes for which it was collected
- We shall retain your personal data for such time as you are registered with Harrow Cricket Club as a member
- Three years after you cease to be a member of Harrow Cricket Club or play an active part in Harrow Cricket Club, we shall delete your data

Your rights in respect of your personal data

You have the right of access to your personal data and, in some cases, to require us to restrict, erase or rectify it or to object to our processing it, and the right of data portability.
