2. The Executive Committee

Purpose

The role of the Executive Committee at Harrow Cricket Club (“the Club”) is to ensure that the Club is performing well and complies with its obligations by:

1. Setting and safeguarding the vision and values of the Club
2. The rules set out in the Club’s constitution are adhered to
3. Developing and agreeing a long-term strategy for the Club
4. Ensuring organisational purposes remain relevant and valid
5. Monitoring progress and spending against plans and budget
6. Amending the plan and budget as appropriate
7. Evaluating results, assessing outcomes and impact
8. Maintaining a positive working relationship with other stakeholders
9. Promote and monitor equality and diversity

The above list is not exhaustive but indicative of its role.

The Governance Role

Together the Executive Committee must fulfil the 5 Core Governance Functions:

1. Determine Mission and Strategy – setting the organisation’s direction and determining how it will get there.
2. Accountability – being held to account for the actions of the organisation and holding those who carry out the work (staff and/or volunteers) to account.
3. Look after the committee – ensuring committee renewal (recruitment, induction and retirement), effective decision making and information sharing processes, positive group dynamics, and reflection, learning and development for the committee as necessary.
4. Safeguard assets - acting as custodian of the assets, tangible (money, property etc) and intangible (organisation’s reputation and name), ensuring that assets are used appropriately and constitutionally. Ensuring that there are sufficient assets for the organisation’s survival.
5. Act as ‘boundary-spanner’ – linking the organisation to its stakeholders, such as members, the community, funders etc.

In addition, there is always a management role for the committee once staff are employed which is to hire, support, monitor (and, if necessary, fire) staff.

Who the members are

- Chairperson
- Club Secretary
- Treasurer
- Cricket Chair
- Bar & Social Chair
- Welfare Officer

The role of welfare officer will be split between two individuals – a male Welfare Officer and a female Welfare Officer. The position of Welfare Officer on the Executive Committee shall be filled one of the Welfare Officers, who shall alternate attendance to the club’s Executive Committee meetings. If both Welfare Officers attend the same Executive Meeting, together they shall be counted as one officer for the purposes of the meeting.

Each member of the Executive Committee is responsible for his/her specifically defined role; to carry out the tasks associated with that defined role (e.g. manage the finances, run the bar, meet with landlords, prepare contracts, hire the groundsman, etc), and to work together to fulfil its purpose and governance role.

How often it will meet

Four times a year.

Conduct (legal)

Executive Committee members must:

- Be active – you cannot be a dormant or ‘sleeping’ management committee member, you are still liable for the decisions the others make in your absence.
- Act jointly – an individual has no powers on their own unless they have been specifically given them by the committee (minuted at a proper meeting).
- Act constitutionally (and within the law) – make sure that you act within the powers and objects (remit) set out in your constitution. Including following the constitution on how meetings are run and how the committee is recruited.
- Act in the interests of the membership and make decisions that are best for them.
- Act reasonably and honestly – remembering to minute discussions and debates so that your reasonableness can be demonstrated.
- Have a duty of care – act prudently and reasonably.
- Not delegate control – everything can be delegated except the power of delegation. The management committee remains responsible and accountable.
- Not benefit personally – unless allowed specifically in the constitution or by law.
- Avoid conflict of interest – manage actual conflicts of interest through a written process/policy and elsewhere avoid the appearance of conflicts of interest.

Conduct (practical)

Executive Committee Members should:

- Strive to attend all meetings, sending apologies to the chair for necessary absences.
- Prepare for the meeting by reading the agenda, papers and emails before the meeting.
- Talk to the chair before the meeting if you need to clarify anything.
- Arrive on time. Stay to the end.
- Participate fully in the meeting;
 - Listen to what others have to say and keep an open mind.
 - Contribute positively to the discussions.
 - Try to be concise and avoid soliloquies/speeches.
- Help others concentrate on the meeting. Discourage side conversations.
- Always have the best interests of the club in mind.
- Draw attention to any potential conflicts of interest that may arise in the meeting.
- Fulfil any responsibilities assigned to you at the meeting and be prepared to report back on your progress at the next meeting.

- Failure to attend two or more consecutive meetings can result in removal as an Executive Committee Member subject to the unanimous approval of the other Executive Committee Members present.

Conduct (best practice)

Executive Committee Members should:

- Agree the values that underpin the Club.
- Agree a clear mission and vision for the Club.
- Be aware of the mission, vision and values of our Club and how to keep its reputation high.
- Gain knowledge of the Club's constitution as a useful and regular source of guidance.
- Develop an understanding of its responsibilities regarding governance and conduct.
- Understand expected behaviours individually and collectively.
- Help members and volunteers understand their roles and responsibilities.
- Agree clear decision making and delegation powers.
- Regularly review of performance against strategic and operational plans.
- Recognise and celebrate achievements.
- Plan financially for the long term.
- Annually review the Club's performance, effectiveness and operations.
- Identify and mitigate risks.

General Qualities

All committee members should:

- Have a commitment to the organisation and its aims.
- Have a willingness to devote the necessary time and effort.
- Possess good judgement and independence of mind.
- Show a willingness to work collectively as part of a group.
- Seek constructive debate and dialogue over confrontation.
